- Bradford, William. Of Plimoth Plantation.
- Note.—"Bradford's history gives the spirit of the Pilgrim movement as no subsequent work can possibly do. It was written at Plymouth, in 1630, and subsequent years, from Bradford's own notes and recollections, as well as from letters and oral testimony. The manuscript, which disappeared, carried off perhaps during the Revolution by some Tory refugee, or by some British soldier, was finally discovered, in 1854, in the library of the Bishop of London, at Fulham palace. It is now deposited in the State House at Boston."
- Bradford, William. Bradford's history "Of Plimoth Plantation." From the original manuscript. With a report of the proceedings incident to the return of the manuscript to Massachusetts. 1898. 974.4-B7225
